EDITORS WERE ENTERTAINED

Messrs. Blackford, Arkle, O'Leary and Riley, representing the Wheeling Intelligence and News, came in with the excursionists of that city yesterday, and were the guests of the board of trade and newspaper men here. They were entertained at the Waldo and driven over the city and to the ball game, returning on the evening train to Wheeling. They are very affable gentlemen and their visit was greatly appreciated. The excursion carrying the many visitors and the ball team came in over the Short Line arriving here at 11:45 and leaving at 6 o'clock.

CLARKSBURG WINS AGAIN

A few more games like the one of yesterday and nervous wrecks will be plentiful in Clarksburg. The locals noosed out a glorious ninth inning victory over the great Wheeling Kindlebergers amid the went crazy and yelled themselves able. Men, women and children went crazy and yelled themselves hoarse. They stood out in a drenching rain for more than half an hour and encouraged their favorites. It was a decided pitchers battle with McClain trailing all the way to the back stretch in second place. While the going was dry and fast Laing had the better of it. When the rains descended and the ball was slippery then the locals demonstrated their abilities as mud horses and won out. McLane seemed to have no trouble in dishing up foolers with a muddy ball whereas Laing lost control and after passing up one man laid them over straight and the result was that he was hit freely. The Kindlebergers were badly crippled. Not a regular was in the outfield. Nesbitt's absence forced a switch of the infield, Woods going to third, McGee to short, while Nau, an outfielder, went to second. The outfit was made up of a pitcher and two strangers. Clarksburg had stage-fright in its worst form in the early part of the game. Errors by the infield made it possible for Wheeling to score in the first. After that there was nothing doing until the ninth, although Wheeling lost two excellent chances to score through dumb base-running. The locals had a new man on first in the person of Kinney, of Sistersville, but he proved a frost. His fielding was off color and his batting very poor. With that exception the team was the same as has been played all along. Laing had them at his mercy all the way until the fatal ninth. Sackett was first up and started the glorious finish with a corking single past third. Zinn tapped an easy one which Laing and McGee failed to field and both men were safe. Kinney then struck out but Gould slipped a Texas leaguer over short and Sackett registered the tying run. Knight connected safely with one to the same territory and the game was won when Zinn crossed the plate. Then the gang went wild. The locals are still undefeated.

Don't forget that one of the best games of the year will be played at Union party Tuesday evening when the best men in the city playing under the colors of the Telegram and News will clash for the inter-city championship. The proceeds will go to the family of the late Elijah Norris. The game will be called at 6 o'clock.

The strain was so great on the people in the stands yesterday that at the conclusion of the ninth inning rally one man threw a fit.

A big crowd is expected to witness the benefit game Tuesday evening. The twilight feature is an innovation here but it is expected that an immense crowd will be on hand. Excellent car service is promised.

At the conclusion of the Sunday game, Nau, the manager of the visiting team immediately asked for another game and his request was readily granted but no time has been set.

Swager's dining room will be used to serve refreshments in during the hot weather every night from 7 to 10 o'clock. Crow's orchestra will furnish music Saturday night. 7:20 21
